Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

1. This action is in reply to the initial filing filed on 22 September 2003.
2. Claim 1 is currently pending and has been examined.
3. Examiner's Note: The Examiner has pointed out particular references contained in the prior art of record within the body of this action for the convenience of the Applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply. Applicant, in preparing the response, should consider fully the entire reference as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior art or disclosed by the Examiner.

Claim Objections

4. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 1 is not numbered.
Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The acronym DVD is undefined. For examination purposes, the Examiner defines DVD as Digital Video Disk.
7. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The phrase "into an individual DVD marketing tool, which will be used as a new revolutionary and innovative way of advertising, promoting and marketing the immense amount of facilities that companies operate. Companies which monitor or administrate hotels, cruise lines, chambers of commerce, golf courses, universities, restaurants, nightclubs casinos, etc." This phrase is unclear because the applicant has not demonstrated in the claims a method of advertising and promoting company services or products. For examination purposes, the Examiner will interpret the claim as promoting a company's services and products via Digital Video Disk (DVD).

8. Regarding claim 1, the phrase "for example" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

9. Claim 1 is rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

10. The claim(s) are narrative in form and replete with indefinite and functional or operational language. The structure which goes to make up the device must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device. The claim(s) must be in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

11. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

12. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because it is not statutory and the applicant is claiming all technologies in video production and describes how the "invention" will benefit companies to successfully reach new customers. The claim is not specific on how the DVD or other video production will promote or advertise businesses' products and services. The applicant does not describe a system, method or apparatus of performing a certain function. In addition, the invention does not produce a tangible, useful and concrete result.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

13. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

14. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Birmingham US Publication 2004/0019521 A1.

Claim 1:

As per claim 1, Birmingham teaches:

What I claim as my invention is to effectively compile all current technologies, i.e., DVD, video production, interactive control menus and other technologies, into an individual DVD marketing tool, which will be used as a new revolutionary and innovative way of advertising, promoting and marketing the immense amount of facilities that companies operate. Companies which monitor or administrate hotels, cruise lines, chambers of commerce, golf courses, universities, restaurants, nightclubs, casinos, etc. need another business method to successfully reach new consumers or maintain loyal patrons (paragraphs 0031 and 0032). Birmingham teaches a marketing tool using a DVD as stated above.
